Gayle,

Boy oh boy oh boy I get to sign your annual! Woweee! This is an honor that I am surely not able to accept but I'll do it. Do you believe all the juvenile delinquency we have caused this year - I don't but then again maybe I do cause when you get four not good girls together what can you expect? Man it has been fun - to write that like it is coming to an end but I shall return. Lots and loads and bundles of luck and success in all you do. This has been an honor and a privilege to love ya, Lucy

(This is my figure - not not quite but close.)

I have really had lots and lots of fun this year - it's really been fun (most of the time.)

Gayle,
One of the best cheerleaders that I have ever known. And best looking too. I know you will have a wonderful future.
Love ya.
Bill Spruill

Gayle, this is it!! Well, I know you're glad. But it is a way you're not. We really haven't seen too much of each other this year. But I'm sure gonna miss you. Good friends. I really wish you the best of everything. Good luck in your future. Don't raise too much hell. May God bless you always.
Love,
Gayle

Foreword

We of John Graham are passing through great transition. We are discarding the ways of children and assuming the roles of men and women. Our eyes are set on new horizons and our minds are turned toward new ideas, but as we march on to greater goals, we can never forget the steps we have already taken.

Best wishes
and many thanks-
Elizabeth Allen

Among teachers there are a special few who inspire in students an unusual respect for learning. They express their interest not only in classroom instruction but in friendly guidance in other activities as well.

We at John Graham feel that we have found just such a teacher possessing all these qualities. We proudly dedicate the 1966 WARRENTONIAN to you,

MISS ELIZABETH ALLEN

Listen to my plea, listen, willow, and

May 14, 1965

Whisper to the wind and say that love has sinned; leave my heart a breaking and making of love,

Mother to the night to hide the starry light, so none will fine me sighing and crying all alone.

Weeping willow tree, weeping sympathy, bend your branches down along the ground that covers me.

When the shadows fall, bend the willow and weep for me.

Without Mr. Webb's understanding coaching ability, John Graham could not have upheld its winning tradition. Faced with many handicaps, he guided our Jackets to another fruitful season.

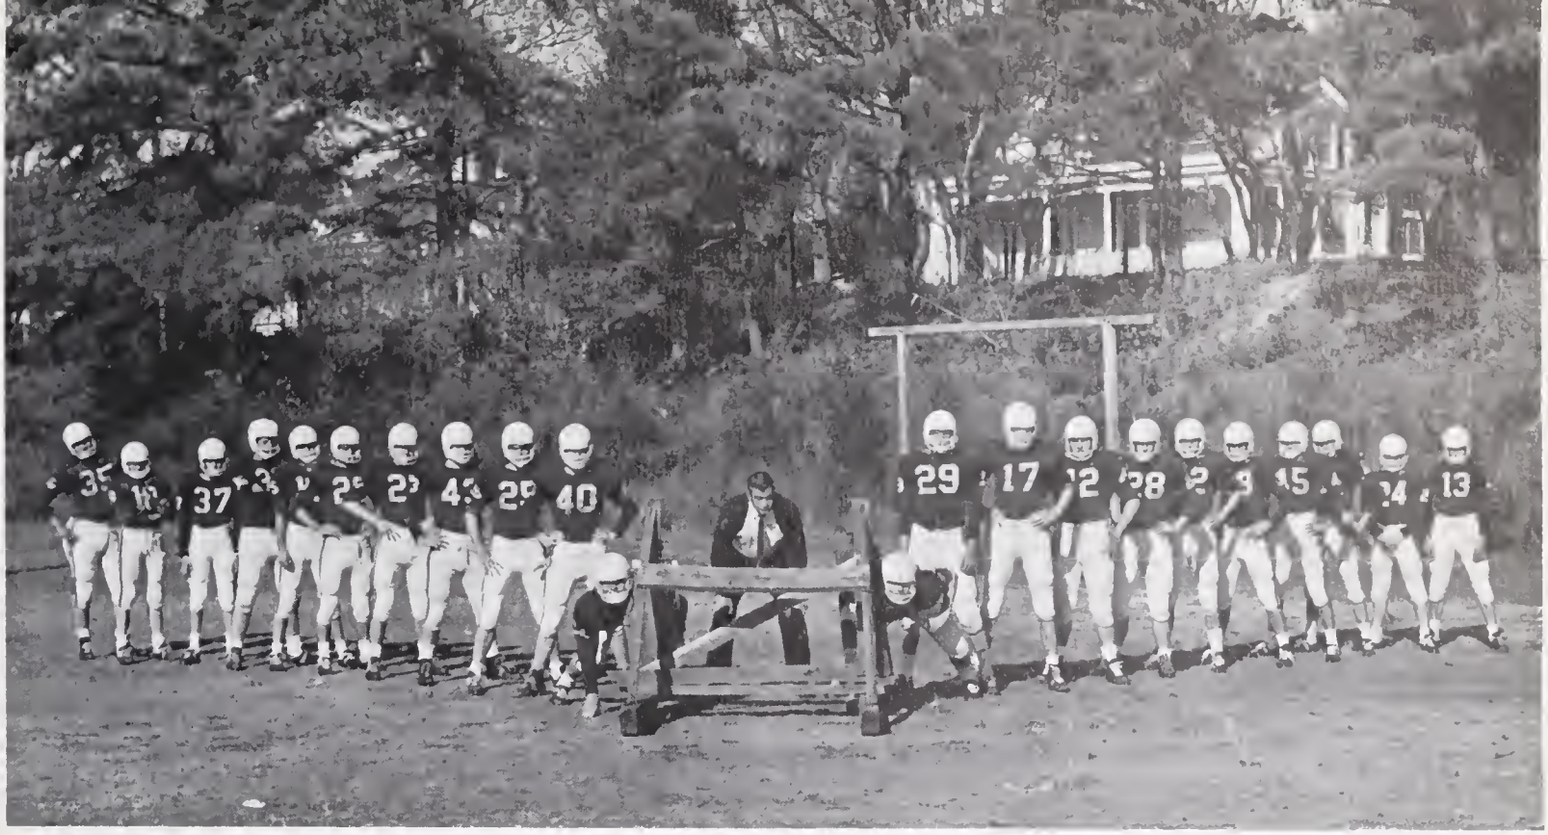
The managers are often in the background, but this does not signify a lack of importance. During every game and at practice the managers were there. These never-idle boys washed towels, bandaged arms, mended equipment and encouraged the team.

TRI-CAPTAINS

Athletic ability is not the only quality of a tri-captain. He must also be a friend, a helper, and a leader. The tri-captain must set an example for the other members of the team. These three boys have done this by never giving up, even when the team was behind. They have led us on to victory many times.

LINE: Lester Capps, Dudley Neal, Harry Stegall, Alan Stoney, John Stegall, Danny Peoples, Lane Myrick.

BACKS: Jay House, Elree Hilliard, Charles Edmonds, Wayne Bartholomew.



Coach stresses importance of timing.

To prevent fumbles, hand-offs must be perfect.

These are the fine young men who will lead next year's team on to victory.

Winning years are ahead for John Graham.

Boosted by the cheerleaders, the crowd really went wild after this touchdown.

Baseball

Baseball is sometimes the forgotten sport at John Graham. It is important, though, because it teaches young men to work together as a team, whether winning or losing.

Sandra Davis, Chief; Shirley Adams, Linda Norwood, Gayle Harmon, Anne Blalock, and Debbie Roberts.

Oh, John Graham High is just the school for me, with all its students and its faculty. To keep her on top always is our aim and come back someday when we know we'll win again. It is the best school in this world, we know, and maybe that is why we love her so; and so we'll stand beside her day by day, day by day, our dear ole John Graham High . . . Rah! Rah!

Hey! We'll fight, we'll fight, with all our strength and might!

Hey! We'll win, we can, so here we give a hand.

Hey! Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! J.G.H.S. Rah!

The year 1965-1966 fades behind us, but we cannot forget the steps we have taken. New goals lie in the future for each of us who has a dream of happiness and a vision of hope. We glimpse and search for ourselves. Where do we belong? After the books we must find the larger framework wherein our existence has meaning, take the small pieces we have found and try them out somewhere else.

I feel like we've always been friends. It's been great going to school this bet we never forgot it.

We always remember the good times we've had. Not

We always remember our nites out on the

(And our younger friends)
Maybe in 2 years we'll all see you up at EC! I hope you succeed in every thing you do. Maybe we'll see you up on stage one day (smile) I know we'll never forget all the times
we came to you with problems, but things worked out for the best. Even though school is almost over
I hope we'll still have some good times
ahead of us this summer. Love you!

Gayle;

O.K, well it is time to write the lies in the annuals again, here goes mine. Gayle we have had some of the best times together that I have ever had in high school. First period study hall, French III, and English IV. Remember the trips to Rolina, getting caught by Mr Reid, sneeking downstairs early and such little stuff as that has made my year fun. We've had good times out of school too. Riding down the hill on the sled and crashing, Ha! Ha!, The Moonglow, going to get a tall ---- and other similar inaidents. Those weren't really lies I ment every word of it. You have really been a good friend to me and I appreciate all the kindness you have showed me. Graduation won't be the end of our friendship I hope it will be a beginning. Best of everything possible for you.

Richard Hunter

P.S.
Happy Valentine's Day and M-e-rr-y
Ch-ri-st-mas.

I feel like we have really accomplished alot this year by editing this annual. Isn't it great?!?!? A lot of it we owe to you on doing a good job on your section.

I hope next year we won't let our friendship dropped. Let's try to plan alot of parties and things when we come home on weekends.

Best of luck to a real fine girl and I hope you do real well down at E.C.

A friend,
Sarah

TAYLOR PUBLISHING COMPANY
"The World's Best Yearbooks Are Taylor-made"

Fuck Lemonade! We just made it! Oh, I'm so glad! You're beautiful!!!! 4/6/66

Sis,

Well Gayle, I really don't know where to begin. It is so hard to write in such a way your closest friends cannot. We have had so many wonderful times together and then too we have had our bad times. I'm writing this upside down so it will be hard for nosey people to read! I hope you don't mind. Too late now if you do! You have helped me with many a problem these past four years. I'm beginning to think I've had my share of problems. Don't you? You have always been around to help me. I do believe we have also had our share of good times too! I'll never forget the fr. plays, working on the fr. ls., cheering, and going to practice. We have had many a private party, too. B.T.'s cabin!!! That's just one example!!! I'll never forget Leonard and Harold Oates - Jerry M. and Dave F.! We have spoke. But there was one - Gilbert! I'll never forget passing notes together. Thanks a million. I'm not sure whether I'm happy or sad that this year is almost over - I'll be glad to get out of this "sucking" school and through with it, but then when school is out we will all be going our own ways. You will be in Cincinnati and I'll be in California! But we'll both be having a blast I'm sure! Maybe we can get together the last of the summer and go to Mardi Gras with Lois Hall! If you can stand to be away from all the boys at C.C. for one rough weekend next year I'd like you to come stay with me. Maybe I'll be able to spend a weekend at C.C. with you. You'd better ask me!!! Writing in your annual is sad in a way. I feel like I'm saying good-bye to four happy and joyous years. (Sorry!) And you have been a part of my life these past years. I'll never forget them. Before I run out of room, I guess I'd better tell you some of that went on this year, also that I've enjoyed. Actually though, you are truly a wonderful person and friend. I hope you have gotten as much happiness out of life as you have helped to put in mine. Have really chosen, this is it. My God bless you. Take care of yourself - you're one of four like you. Love

Hey Kid!
The year is nearing its close what means that this part of our lives will be only memories. I feel that our friendship is too great to end just because we are parting, sob! sob! You have become a part of my life as a companion and girl friend.
I will think our "times" together and hope we will get together many more times. Now I'll tell you what I really think of you — you are a nice white girl. Remember me
when you are in Hollywood Best of Luck!
Devotedly
Ronnie
